

MONTHLY MEETING · AUGUST 2026

SayaKaya August Review

July 2026 performance, with June for comparison. Data through 17 August.

READ THIS BEFORE THE FIRST NUMBER

The RAIZ book is excluded from every figure in this deck — 256,694 accounts, of which 8 have transacted in the last 30 days. They hold a flat Rp 7.0 B and earn about Rp 3.0 M a month. Including them makes every rate meaningless. Numbers here will be lower than the dashboard, which still counts the full book.

AUM · AUG DAILY AVG (17D)

253.1 B

+3.5% vs Jul avg

On daily-average balance (not month-end snapshot), July was a genuine trough and August is only +3.5% off it — a stabilization, not the recovery the month-end numbers implied. The real turnaround signal is net flow, +47.6 B month-to-date after five months of outflow.

June → July → August

August is 17 of 31 days. Pace is a naive $\times \frac{31}{17}$ on flows only — balances and people counts are never projected. AUM below is daily-average, which already makes a partial month comparable.

THE NUMBER NOBODY WILL SPOT ON THEIR OWN

The average buy ticket quadrupled — Rp 34.3 M in June to Rp 141.4 M in August — while the median halved twice, Rp 2.0 M to Rp 0.5 M. A few big cheques now carry the volume; the typical retail purchase keeps shrinking.

AUM down 59% in seven months, on average balance

PLATFORM AUM, AVERAGE DAILY BALANCE PER MONTH · RP BILLION · EXCL. RAIZ

Recut on average daily balance instead of month-end snapshot — a bare end-of-month read gets pulled down by redemptions clustered around bank-related month-end deadlines. Averaging also makes August's 17 days (*) directly comparable to a full month: no separate run-rate needed for a balance, only for flows (see Trajectory). The feed starts 14 January 2026, so no earlier AUM history exists — no year-on-year

Revenue follows AUM down

PLATFORM FEE REVENUE, APERD SHARE · RP MILLION PER MONTH · EXCL. RAIZ

Fees accrue daily off the balance, so a month that ends low has been earning less the whole way through. July is –55.9% against the March peak. Total management fee, our share plus the MI's, was Rp 287.5 M. August's dashed bar is a run-rate (naive $\times \frac{31}{17}$ on the 17 days billed so far) — projects to ~Rp 154 M, a fourth straight monthly decline, not a rebound.

It was two accounts, not a churn event

The platform lost Rp 50.0 B between 30 June and 31 July. Two accounts moved Rp 59.5 B out over the same window — more than the entire net decline.

* Account A — Indrawati (indrawati.hnwi@sayakaya.id). Account B — Jackson Sulastri (jacksonsulastrieipo@gmail.com).

July was not a weak buying month — buy volume was Rp 83.6 B from 307 buyers, the highest since January and triple June's. The outflow was two redemptions, not a demand collapse.

THE OTHER END OF THE BOOK

5,184 accounts hold any AUM at all. 3,833 of them hold under Rp 100,000, and the median is Rp 12,365. The working customer base is roughly 870 accounts with a meaningful balance.

WHAT THIS MEANS FOR THE ROADMAP

We do not have a retention problem at the bottom. We have a relationship-management problem at the top, where one phone call moves the monthly number more than every campaign combined.

Neither of the two accounts is flagged as an institution and neither came through a referral — in the data they read as ordinary retail. This is exactly July's Tech ask: HNWI support for AUM over Rp 1 B.

Five negative months, then August

NET FLOW — BUYS MINUS SELLS · RP BILLION · EXCL. RAIZ

This is the net transactions figure Marketing asked Data for in July. It should be a standing line in this meeting from now on.

APP INSTALLS, JUL 2026 (GOOGLE ANALYTICS)

401 dl • 303 unin.

GA sits outside the warehouse and doesn't join to registration, KYC, or buy events — so we can't say when in the funnel an uninstall lands, only that it's a lot of them.

WE ARE BLIND ON CHANNEL

No UTM or channel field exists on the user record. Not one registration can be attributed to a channel, spend change, or campaign.

Before they uninstalled: most never got past KYC

WHAT THE UNINSTALL COHORT DID, EVER, BEFORE THEIR LAST SESSION · GOOGLE ANALYTICS, JUL 2026

PUSH DIDN'T HOLD THEM

Of everyone who got a notification, 43% dismissed one and only 19% ever clicked one (1.3% click-through overall). In-app messages fared no better — dismissed as often as they were shown.

A PROMO DIDN'T SAVE THE SALE

Up to 14 people clicked into a promo screen at some point and still ended up in this cohort — a promo click alone isn't a retention signal.

SOME LEFT ON PURPOSE

17 people logged out manually and 4 cleared the app's local data before disappearing — a deliberate exit, not silent drift, for at least this small group.

Cohort is the July uninstall population traced in GA (~239 people reached by first_open in this trace, close to the 303 uninstalls on the Acquisition slide — GA doesn't join this to registration/KYC/buy in the warehouse, so these are correlated events, not a proven causal order). "Signed up" sums Google and email/phone success events as parallel paths; not deduplicated against each other.

Referral is our best channel by a wide margin

AND YET

Referral is only 7.8% of our signups.

July's Marketing dependency — "Tech: referral page to be renewed" — has better evidence behind it than anything else on the board. It should be prioritised above new channel spend.

TWO THINGS WRONG AT ONCE

The cohorts are shrinking — 68 new buyers in January became 15 in July — and each one retains worse than the last.

AUM is not the same thing as revenue

FUND	MI	JUN	JUL	FEE	JUL APERD
Sucorinvest Sharia Balanced	Sucor	9.7 B	36.0 B	1.50%	22.9 M

Sucorinvest Money Market	Sucor	55.4 B	17.9 B	1.00%	7.6 M

Trimegah Kapital Plus earns more fee on Rp 7.0 B than Sucorinvest Money Market does on Rp 17.9 B. Shifting Rp 10 B out of money market is worth more than Rp 30 B of new money-market inflow.

CONCENTRATION RISK

Sucor Asset Management alone is five of our top twelve funds.

WHY REVENUE HELD UP BETTER THAN AUM

The July whale movement was partly a rotation inside Sucor — money market out, sharia balanced in.

Campaign ROI is now priceable — and it's negative

CAMPAIGN — LIFETIME, ACTIVE IN JUN–JUL	PERIOD	USERS	BUY VOLUME	BONUS EACH

64.5%

of all campaign-driven volume above came from PINNACLETOP alone — 18 people. KIMFORE and THRCUAN, previously left off this table, turn out to be the platform's widest-reach promos by user count (280 and 94 people).

488 → 95

promo-tagged completed transactions, July 2025 against July 2026.

REVENUE SIDE WORKS NOW — COST SIDE IS THE REAL GAP

Yesterday's new Campaign revenue section prices the fee earned on units a promo locked up. For the two promos with a real fund lock: THRCUAN earned ≈Rp 2.9 M in fee against ≈Rp 9.4 M in bonuses (94 users × Rp 100 K) — net ≈ −Rp 6.5 M. PINNACLETOP earned ≈Rp 2.4 M against ≈Rp 180 M (18 users × Rp 10 M) — net ≈ −Rp 177.6 M. `campaigns.used_quota` reads 0 on both completed promos, so we costed by `investors × bonus_amount` instead of pulling it automatically — that field needs fixing before ROI can run unattended. KIMFORE and the other no-lock promos still can't be priced this way; they'd need a buy-volume ROI, not a fee one.
